The greatest care was necessary to keep this orbis even in shape, and dire was the punishment which awaited the unhappy slave who misplaced even one curl. 7 In the back the hair was divided into many parts, braided, and these braids were coiled: (a) in the low, long coil of the two preceding periods, Type I, (b); Type II, (a); (b) in a coil halfway up the head; this coil was sometimes made without braiding the hair. The locks or curls on the neck, seen in the preceding tpe, entirely disappeared. Juvenal speaks of this style of coiffure in the following lines: 8 Another, trembling on the left, prepares To open and arrange, the stragglng hairs In ringlets trim: meanwhile the council meet And first the nurse, a personage discreet, Late from the toilet to the wheel removed (The effect of time) yet still of taste approved, Gives her opinion; then the rest, in course As age, or practice lends their judgment force; So warm they grow and so much pains they take, Youd think her life, or honor, was at stake. So high they pile her head, such tiers on tiers With wary hands they pile, that she appears Andromache before;--and what behind A dwarf, a creature of another kind! The workmanship on the statues representing this mode of hairdressing is interesting. While the workmen often succeeded in representing with a fair degree of accuracy the parting of...
