By John Peter Clever Shanks

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Vindication of Major General John C. Fremont: Against the Attacks of the Slave Power and Its Allies The House being in Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union - Mr. Shanks said: Mr. Chairman: It is with feelings of much anxiety that I arise, under the peculiar circumstances which surround me, to address this House on the subjects before it. My purpose is to call the attention of the committee to some of the matters contained in the Report in part of the committee on contracts, of which the gentleman from New York [Mr. Van Wyck] is chairman, only, however, so far as they relate to General John C. Fremont, and then only to a part of those at this time, as I intend, if possible, to take those subjects in detail when that report and accompanying resolutions may come before us. This Report in part was made on the 17th day of December, and has been sent from this House to all parts of the country. Its consideration has been deferred...
