C The reign of the German emperor Henry IV., of the house of the Salian Franks (1066 to 1160), was nothing but a chain of troubles, misfortunes, degradation and treason. When his father, Emperor Henry III., died, in the year 1056, Henry IV. was but six years old. His mother, Empress Agnes, a very intelligent and noble-hearted woman, first undertook the education of her son and the government of the empire. Soon, however, she found herself in a difficult position, having to contend with many refractory seigniors of the realm, whom even the energetic Henry III. had been unable to entirely subdue, who had deposed three popes one after the other, and tried to render the power of the dukes wholly dependent on the crown. It was, therefore, an unlucky circumstance for Henry IV. to be so very young at his father's death, when ecclesiastical and secular princes, beginning to feel tired of his father...
